Dear Sreehari,

Welcome to Mandala Advisors PTY LTD (Employer)

Terms and Conditions of Employment | Mandala Advisors Pty Limited

ABN 16 663 771 828

I am pleased to confirm your employment with Mandala Advisors Pty Limited

ABN 16 663 771 828 (the Company) on the terms and conditions set out in this letter and any schedules attached (the Agreement).

The Fair Work Information Statement you are required to receive can be accessed via the below link: <https://www.fairwork.gov.au/employment-conditions/national-employment-standards/fair-work-information-statement>

1. Commencement Date

1.1 Your employment with the Company will commence on the date specified in Item 1 of Schedule 1 (Commencement Date) and will continue unless terminated in accordance with this Agreement.

2. Probationary Period

2.1 Your employment is subject to a probationary period of the duration set out in Item 2 of Schedule 1 during which time either you or the Company may terminate your employment by providing one week's notice in writing, or by the Company making a payment to you in lieu of notice for all or part of this notice period.

2.2 Prior to the expiry of the probationary period (if any), the Company may extend the probationary period by notice in writing to you. Any extended probationary period must end before the date which is 12 months from the Commencement Date. If your employment continues following the probationary period, it will be on the terms contained in this Agreement.

3. Modern Award and National Employment Standards

3.1 Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the modern award set out in Item 3 of Schedule 1 (Modern Award) (if any) and the National Employment Standards (NES) apply to your employment as a matter of law but do not form part of your contract of employment or this Agreement.

3.2 If a Modern Award applies to your employment, your current classification under the Modern Award is set out in Item 4 of Schedule 1.

4. Your Role

4.1 You will be employed in the position set out in Item 5 of Schedule 1 or other positions as determined by the Company from time to time, and on the basis set out in Item 6 of Schedule 1.

4.2 You will report to the person/s set out in Item 7 of Schedule 1, or other persons as directed by the Company from time to time.

4.3 Your duties and responsibilities are as set out in any position description which is provided to you by the Company and any other duties that the Company may reasonably require you to perform from time to time. You agree that you will:

- (a) perform your duties to the best of your ability, diligently and faithfully;
- (b) act in the Company's best interests at all times;

- (c) comply with all lawful and reasonable directions given by the Company;
- (d) conduct yourself in a professional and courteous manner, including when dealing with the Company, its customers, clients, employees, consultants, suppliers and other stakeholders;
- (e) not damage, or act in a manner which may damage the Company's reputation, or the reputation of a Related Entity (as defined in this Agreement) or the Company's directors, officers, agents, or representatives;
- (f) comply and act in accordance with all relevant laws, regulations, guidelines and professional standards applicable to your employment and your Position and hold all required registrations and qualifications, including but not limited to a current driver's licence;
- (g) not enter into any agreement, arrangement or contract to bind the Company unless you have been authorised by the Company.

4.4 If the Company promotes you and/or your remuneration, position, duties, responsibilities and/or status change, the terms of this Agreement will continue to apply to your employment.

5. Warranties

5.1 You warrant that:

- (a) you are eligible to work lawfully in Australia. You acknowledge that the Company may require you to produce one or more of the following documents as evidence of your eligibility to work lawfully in Australia and if you are not lawfully permitted to work in Australia or subsequently become unable to lawfully work in Australia, the Company may immediately terminate your employment without notice (or payment in lieu thereof).
 - (i) an Australian birth certificate or citizenship document;
 - (ii) a document evidencing permanent residency; or
 - (iii) a valid temporary visa permitting you to work in Australia.
- (b) you hold the necessary skills and experience to lawfully perform the duties of your position;
- (c) any representations made by you in respect of your skills, qualifications and experience are true and correct, and acknowledge that the Company is relying on such representations in offering employment to you;

(d) you hold the requisite registrations, qualifications or certifications required to lawfully perform the duties of your position (if any) and that any such registrations, qualifications or certifications are valid and current;

(e) during the course of your employment you will maintain all registrations, qualifications or certifications which are required for the lawful performance of your duties and will notify the Company immediately upon becoming aware of any limitations, suspensions or restrictions imposed on any registrations, qualifications or certifications including if any registrations, qualifications or certifications lapse or are suspended or cancelled;

(f) you have fully disclosed to the Company any limitations on your ability to fully perform all of your duties and responsibilities including limitations arising from any other employment (such as any post-employment restraints or restrictions);

(g) in entering this Agreement and accepting employment with the Company you have not relied on any direct or indirect conduct or representation of the Company or any of the Company's officers, employees or agents, other than the terms set out in this Agreement.

5.2 You acknowledge and agree that:

(a) the Company may terminate your employment immediately and without notice to you if you fail to hold or maintain a registration, qualification or certification which is required to lawfully perform the duties of your position, or if any of the warranties set out above are breached;

(b) your employment is conditional upon you holding all requisite registrations, qualifications and certifications and your compliance with the obligations and warranties above;

(c) the Company is relying on you providing the warranties in this clause in offering you employment.

6. Location

6.1 The Company is based at the location set out in Item 8 of Schedule 1 and you agree to work from other locations as directed by the Company from time to time.

6.2 The Company may, in its sole and absolute discretion, permit you to work from your residential premises or other workspace (Remote Working) on days and at times approved by the Company, subject to your compliance with the Company's directions and Company policies and procedures with respect to Remote Working as applicable from time to time. You acknowledge and agree that the Company may discontinue or vary any Remote Working arrangements at its sole and absolute discretion for reasons including, but not limited to, your performance or productivity and the Company's business and operational requirements.

7. Hours of Work

7.1 Your ordinary hours of work are set out in Item 9 of Schedule 1. You agree to work these ordinary hours of work and any other hours as are reasonably necessary for you to perform your duties satisfactorily. You agree that these other hours are reasonable additional hours and that you will not be entitled to receive any additional remuneration for hours worked outside your ordinary hours of work.

7.2 Your hours of work must be worked at the times and on the days set out in Item 10 of Schedule 1 or at other times or on days as directed by the Company from time to time. You acknowledge that this may include working on the weekends or after-hours.

8. Conflict of Interest

8.1 You must use all reasonable endeavours to avoid any situation where your interests may conflict, or be inconsistent, with the interests of the Company. If such a situation has arisen or may reasonably be expected to arise, you must notify the Company immediately.

8.2 You must not solicit or accept any payment or any other benefit from a person other than the Company as an inducement or reward in connection with any matter or business undertaken or capable of being undertaken by or on behalf of the Company.

8.3 Whilst employed by the Company you must devote your whole time and attention to the business of the Company as required and must not, without the prior written consent of the Company, engage in any other activity or employment.

9. Remuneration

9.1 The Company will pay you a total remuneration package (TRP), including a base salary component and superannuation component, as set out in Item 11 of Schedule 1, less applicable tax. Your base salary will be paid into your nominated bank account by electronic funds transfer on the frequency basis set out in Item 12 of Schedule 1.

9.2 Your TRP and any other payments or benefits made to you under this Agreement (Remuneration) constitutes payment for all hours worked by you and is paid to you in satisfaction of any and all NES, Modern Award (if applicable) and industrial instrument provisions and entitlements that may be applicable to your position, including but not limited to:

(a) minimum wages;

- (b) allowances;
- (c) overtime;
- (d) penalty rates;
- (e) loadings, including annual leave loading, (Minimum Entitlements).

10. Set Off

10.1 You acknowledge and agree your Remuneration constitutes payment for all hours worked by you and that:

- (a) the Remuneration incorporates payment of all Minimum Entitlements;
- (b) the Remuneration compensates you for, and can be used to set off, any legal entitlement you may have or become entitled to in respect of the Minimum Entitlements;
- (c) the provisions of any applicable Modern Award (or any other applicable industrial instrument) dealing with the Minimum Entitlements and any other monetary entitlements are fully satisfied by payment of the Remuneration to you;
- (d) any Remuneration paid to you by the Company which exceeds your Minimum Entitlements may be offset against any other monetary entitlement due to you under any Modern Award or any other applicable industrial instrument;
- (e) you are not entitled to additional payments or benefits for (without limitation) overtime, allowances, loadings (including annual leave loading) and penalties; and
- (f) if there are changes to the Minimum Entitlements, your Remuneration will be applied to, and absorb, those changed entitlements.

11. Superannuation

11.1 The Company will make compulsory superannuation contributions on your behalf in accordance with the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 (Cth) (SGA Act) into your nominated eligible superannuation fund, or if you do not nominate a fund:

- (a) an existing stapled fund as defined by the SGA Act; or
- (b) the Company's default fund, if the required enquiries made by the Company in accordance with the SGA Act do not reveal you have a stapled fund for the purposes of the SGA Act.

11.2 The current superannuation guarantee rate is listed in Item 13 of Schedule 1. The superannuation contribution made on your behalf by the Company is the minimum superannuation guarantee rate of your base salary in each year or the maximum contribution limit under the SG Act, whichever amount is the lower.

11.3 The superannuation contributions shall be deducted from the TRP and the net amount so derived (less any amount in respect of fringe benefits) shall be your base salary from which Pay As You Go tax instalments will be deducted by the Company.

11.4 If there is an increase in compulsory superannuation contributions required by law, the components of your TRP will be varied to ensure there is no increase in your TRP.

12. Other Benefits

12.1 In addition to your TRP, you are entitled to the additional benefits set out in Item 14 of Schedule 1.

12.2 The Company may, at its sole and absolute discretion:

- (a) elect to pay you a cash bonus (Bonus); and/or
- (b) determine the method for calculation or payment timing of any Bonus; and/or
- (c) implement policies which govern the entitlement to Bonus payments.

12.3 Any Bonus will not form part of:

- (a) your “base rate of pay” for the purpose of the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth), meaning any Bonus will not form part of any payments made to you in respect of accrued annual leave, accrued personal/carer’s leave or compassionate leave or other statutory entitlements; or
- (b) any amount payable to you on cessation of employment for any reason, including in regard to payment in lieu of notice, redundancy payments, accrued but untaken long service leave and annual leave payments, superannuation benefits or any other termination payment whatsoever.

13. Laptop and other electronic equipment

13.1 The Company may provide you with a Company owned laptop and/or other electronic equipment for use in connection with the performance of your duties. Where electronic equipment is provided, all work- related and reasonable personal use expenses will be paid for by the Company. You are required to maintain the electronic equipment in reasonable condition and treat it with care. Misuse of the equipment may result in disciplinary action being taken against you, up to and including termination of your employment.

13.2 You acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) upon the giving of notice of termination by the Company or by you, or at any other time, you will, upon request from the Company return the equipment (in good working order) to the Company, and if required, take all necessary steps to assist in arranging for the transfer of any accounts associated with the equipment from you to the Company;
- (b) you will comply with the Company's request (at any time) to provide the Company with details of your personal use of the equipment (for the purpose of ensuring such use is reasonable);
- (c) given the equipment is owned by the Company, you have no expectation of privacy with respect to the account associated with the equipment.

14. Expenses

14.1 The Company will reimburse you for all expenses that you reasonably incur in the proper performance of your duties, subject to you providing receipts (such as tax invoices) or other documentary evidence as the Company may require, or in accordance with any other expense claiming policies and/or procedures of the Company from time to time.

14.2 The Company reserves the right to not approve or authorise any reimbursement if you fail to provide adequate evidence of the expense.

15. Leave Entitlements and Public Holidays

15.1 You are entitled to annual leave, personal/carer's leave, and other leave in accordance with the NES and relevant legislation, as it applies from time to time.

15.2 The Company may require you to take accrued annual leave where the requirement is reasonable, including during any business or part-business shut-down (including but not limited to where the Company is required to shut-down pursuant to a Government-order or directive or to manage business operations during a period of downturn). If you do not have sufficient accrued annual leave to cover any shut-down period, you agree to take leave without pay.

15.3 If you are absent on personal/carer's leave for more than one work day in succession, you are required to provide the Company with satisfactory documentary evidence (for example a medical certificate or a statutory declaration) to evidence your or your family/household member's illness or injury. The Company also reserves its right to request documentary evidence from you to verify personal/carer's leave for single day absences.

15.4 You are also entitled to public holidays in accordance with gazetted public holidays in accordance with gazetted public holidays in the State / Territory in which you are located.

16. Confidential Information

16.1 You acknowledge that in the course of your employment with the Company, you will have access to Confidential Information.

16.2 For the purposes of this Agreement:

(a) Confidential Information means any information of any type acquired or accessible by you in the course of, or incidental to, your employment with the Company including but not limited to:

(i) this Agreement and the terms and conditions of your employment and you acknowledge and agree that you will not disclose such details to any other person (other than your legal or financial advisors) (this does not include nor apply to your remuneration details and any other terms and conditions of their employment that are reasonably necessary to determine remuneration outcomes);

(ii) technical knowledge, confidential know-how, concepts, designs, plans, precedents, processes, methods, techniques, innovations, inventions, ideas, procedures, research data, information about products and services in development and computer software;

(iii) advertising, marketing and sales models and plans, proposed funding requirements and arrangements, business models and plans, strategic plans, business proposals and management reports, product development plans, competitive analyses, benchmark test results, business and financial information, business reports or forecasts, balance sheets, profit and loss statements, non-public financial information, customer, Client, Supplier and employee lists, details and agreements (including lists and details of prospective customers, Clients, Suppliers and employees), schedules and templates of the Company;

(iv) records and/or databases created by you using social media or social networking applications, which relate in any way to the business of the Company, whether created during working hours or outside those hours, including but not limited to Blogs, Wikis, social networking sites such as Facebook and LinkedIn, instant messaging, social bookmarking, media sharing, collaborative editing sites;

(v) any information or material not described above which relates to the Company's inventions, technology developments, purchasing, invoicing, accounting, products, merchandising, licensing and/or distribution plans;

(vi) any information which the Company has a legal obligation to treat as confidential such as information of the Company's Clients, customers, business associates, licensors and/or Suppliers, including but not limited to sensitive and personal data and information;

- (vii) trade secrets and Work Results (as defined in this Agreement);
 - (viii) information containing or relating to details of the Clients, customers, business associates, licensors and/or Suppliers of the Company, including prospective Clients, customers, business associates, licensors and/or Suppliers;
 - (ix) information concerning the directors, employees, contractors and/or agents of the Company and its Related Entities;
 - (x) commercially sensitive information, contractual arrangements or other business intelligence;
 - (xi) client and third party data, information or material that the Company obtains access through specific data use and data processing agreements with other clients and third parties;
 - (xii) any other information or data that you are given or which comes to your knowledge or attention or which is created or generated by you in the course of or incidental to your employment that you are told is confidential, or that a reasonable person would expect from its nature to be confidential;
 - (xiii) programs, correspondence and letters and papers of every description including all copies or extracts of same relating to the affairs, business or business interests of the Company or any Related Entities or any client or customer of the Company;
 - (xiv) the Confidential Information of any Related Entities;
- (b) Related Entities means a related body corporate (as defined by the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)), and Related Entity has a corresponding meaning.

16.3 You acknowledge and agree that you:

- (a) in the ordinary course of your employment, have acquired and will continue to acquire and have access to the Company's property, including but not limited to Confidential Information;
- (b) have not and will not during the term of your employment or thereafter, without the prior written consent of the Company or as otherwise required by law, disclose directly or indirectly to any person, firm or company Confidential Information and will not use any part of the Confidential Information in any way other than as is required in the proper performance of your duties;
- (c) have not and will not during the term of your employment or thereafter, without the prior written consent of the Company, copy, memorise, extract, summarise, appropriate, reproduce in any manner, remove, permanently erase or delete any Confidential Information, wholly or partially, whether in physical or electronic form, in any way other than as is required in the performance of your duties. This includes but is not limited to sending Confidential Information to a personal email address and/or downloading Confidential Information to a removable storage device and/or uploading Confidential Information to any cloud based server;

- (d) have taken and will continue to take all reasonable and necessary precautions to maintain the secrecy and prevent the disclosure of any Confidential Information;
- (e) have taken and will continue to take all reasonable steps to be aware of and act consistently and in accordance with the obligations the Company may have pursuant to any third party data processing agreement that the Company has entered into with clients or third parties in connection with, access to, and processing of client and third party data, information or materials including but not limited to data protection, privacy and safety;
- (f) will not prevent access by the Company to the Confidential Information by the use of passwords or any other means. All Confidential Information remains the property of the Company and will not leave the premises of the Company without the written permission of the Company, except as required in the proper performance of your duties;
- (g) will return any or all Confidential Information at the Company's request and on the cessation of your employment (whether such Confidential Information is in hard copy or electronic form);
- (h) will, if directed by the Company in writing, permanently delete any Confidential Information in your possession which is held in electronic form and provide evidence of the same;
- (i) will immediately notify the Company after becoming aware of any suspected or actual unauthorised use, copying or disclosure of Confidential Information by any person and provide such assistance as requested by the Company in relation to any action taken by the Company to prevent any suspected or actual unauthorised used, copying or disclosure of Confidential Information by any person;
- (j) have an obligation to ensure that accurate and sufficient records of anything you create during your employment with the Company, or to do with the Company's business is kept confidential and in a form that is usable and accessible to the Company. Records created by you as a result of the use of social media are subject to the same business and legislative requirements as records created by other means, such as in a document or in a database, during formal or informal meetings, in emails and/or telephone file notes; and
- (k) are subject to obligations concerning Confidential Information in this Agreement, in equity and under common law.

16.4 For the purposes of this Agreement, Personal Device means any electronic device used by you (whether owned by you or otherwise), including without limitation, laptops and computers, hard drives and back up disks, servers such as file servers, email servers, application servers and remote servers, cloud storage facilities and platforms, personal storage devices including but not limited to USB flash drives, USB hard drives, CDs/DVDs, memory sticks, memory cards, and mobile devices, such as mobile phones, smartphones, smartwatches and tablets.

16.5 If during or after the employment the Company reasonably suspects that you have breached your obligations under this clause, you agree to provide to the Company on request:

- (a) all or any specified Personal Device, or any device used by you in the course of the employment;
- (b) any device provided to or used by you in the course of the employment;
- (c) the access details (such as username and password) for any Personal Device or any other device;
- (d) the username(s) and password(s) of any email address used by you other than the Company's email address, for the purpose of the Company ascertaining whether you have complied with your obligations under the Agreement or the Company's policies.

16.6 You acknowledge and agree that any Personal Device or device provided by you under this clause may be subject to forensic examination by a forensic information technology expert nominated by the Company.

16.7 You acknowledge that unauthorised use or disclosure of Confidential Information by you may result in the termination of your employment.

16.8 The obligations of you under this clause survive the termination of this Agreement and will continue until the Confidential Information ceases to be confidential other than due to disclosure by you in breach of this Agreement.

17. Intellectual Property

17.1 For the purposes of this Agreement:

- (a) Copyright Act means the Copyright Act 1968 (Cth);
- (b) Intellectual Property Rights (or IPR) means all intellectual property rights, including without limitation the following rights:
 - (i) patents, copyrightable works, rights in circuit layouts, registered and unregistered designs, patterns, trademarks, domain names, business names, inventions, ideas, discoveries, improvements and any right to have Confidential Information kept confidential; and
 - (ii) any application or right to apply for registration of any of the rights referred to in the above clause 17.1(b)(i).

(c) Moral Rights has the meaning given in the Copyright Act;

(d) Work Result means anything created, developed, modified, contributed to or invented by you in the course of your employment or by using the Company's property, resources or Confidential Information (whether during or outside the Company's business hours) including but not limited to designs, trademarks, copyright, patents, concepts, know how, documents, records and work or project methods.

17.2 You acknowledge and agree that the Company is the sole and exclusive owner of all Work Result and IPR including without limitation copyright throughout the world and all journalistic, literary and artistic work created, conceived, developed or acquired, in whole or in part, by you, in the course of your employment with the Company, however and whenever created or conceived, whether solely or jointly with others, or whether during regular office hours or outside these hours, or on the Company's premises, or otherwise. For the avoidance of doubt, any and all schedules, templates and documents generated by you during your employment with the Company, including any such schedules, templates and documents generated by you prior to the date of this Agreement, constitute Work Result and IPR (as applicable) for the purposes of this clause.

17.3 You must promptly disclose to the Company all Work Results and IPR, including Work Results and IPR conferred under the Copyright Act, and rights of a similar nature and must co-operate with the Company in registering or otherwise protecting such Work Result or IPR, including executing any documents and doing everything required or requested by the Company to confirm, perfect, register or protect the Company's rights in the IPR. In the event that you are unable to do so, you hereby appoint the Company secretary to do so as your attorney.

17.4 You agree that the Work Result constitutes Confidential Information of the Company.

17.5 You grant the Company (and the Company's licensees, successors in title and authorised agents) consent to do or omit to do any act which would otherwise infringe your Moral Rights under the Copyright Act in relation to all works you make in the course of your employment.

17.6 If you are the author of any work, or a subject matter other than a work that was created during your employment and/or any Work Result, the Company may use it in any manner. You consent to this use whether or not it would, but for this clause, infringe your Moral Rights.

17.7 You will promptly disclose to the Company any business opportunity to create, develop, acquire or invent Work Results or IPR that relates to the business of the Company.

17.8 Your obligations under this clause survive the termination of your employment with the Company.

18. Use and Return of Company Property

18.1 All items provided to you by the Company during your employment (including but not limited to Confidential Information) remain the property of the Company.

18.2 You agree that you will take reasonable care of any Company property provided or made available to you and that you will reimburse the Company for any damage to Company owned property and equipment where such damage is caused by your negligence.

18.3 If requested by the Company:

(a) at any time during the course of your employment; or

(b) on the cessation of your employment for whatever reason, you must immediately return to the Company all property belonging to the Company and any Confidential Information, whether in physical or electronic form and not retain copies, reproductions or extracts of same) that is in your possession or control.

19. Termination of Employment

19.1 In the event that either you or the Company decides to terminate your employment, the notice of termination that each party must give to the other in writing is the period set out in Item 15 of Schedule 1. If either you or the Company terminates your employment, the Company may choose to make a payment to you in lieu of part or all of this notice period based on your TRP (noting the superannuation component will be paid to your superannuation fund).

19.2 During any period of notice provided under clause 19.1, the Company may direct you to:

(a) not perform any or all of your duties and responsibilities;

(b) perform lesser or alternative duties;

(c) not attend work or the workplace or the premises of the Company's customers, clients or suppliers;

(d) not contact clients, customers, employees, suppliers or any other person whom you may otherwise contact during the course of your employment; and/or

(e) not access any electronic data, equipment, records, systems or accounts belonging to or operated by the Company (including without limitation Company email accounts), and the Company reserves the right to suspend or disable your access to such systems; and during such time you will remain employed by the Company.

19.3 You acknowledge that any direction made under Clause 19.2 above does not constitute a repudiation by the Company of this Agreement and that during any such time you will remain employed by the Company.

19.4 The Company may also terminate your employment immediately and without notice if you engage in any conduct that would give the Company the right to summarily dismiss you at law, including but not limited to where you engage in serious misconduct, refuse or fail to comply with any lawful and reasonable direction given by the Company, engage in conduct that would bring the Company into disrepute, materially neglect your duties and/or commit any serious or persistent breach of this Agreement.

19.5 On termination of your employment for any reason (including by way of your resignation) you must immediately:

- (a) repay all sums you owe to the Company whether such sums are then due to be paid or not. Any sums not paid immediately may be deducted by the Company from any payments due to you;
- (b) return all Company property in your possession, custody or control (including all confidential information whether in electronic form or hard copy, and copies, extracts, summaries and reproductions of same);
- (c) provide to the Company any relevant passwords, if any, to computers, devices, systems, email accounts or computer files which have been in your care or control during your employment (including to any cloud based or remote servers or systems);
- (d) resign from all offices, positions and authorities you may hold for the Company or any of its related entities unless the Company directs otherwise. You agree to do all things and execute all documents necessary to give effect to these resignations;
- (e) certify to the Company that you have complied with your obligations under this clause and this Agreement; and
- (f) do all things and execute all documents necessary to give effect to the above obligations.

19.6 Any provision of this Agreement which is still to be performed or which, by its terms must continue to be observed, continues to have effect after the termination of your employment.

19.7 On termination of your employment, the Company reserves the right to withhold from your salary or other sums due to you (including amounts payable on the cessation of your employment):

- (i) any amounts owed by you on any account to the Company; or
- (ii) where you cease your employment and give less than the required amount of notice, an amount equal to the shortfall in the notice period, and by signing this Agreement, you irrevocably authorise the Company to make the deductions referred to above or agree to reimburse the Company any amounts due (in instances where the amount owed to you by the Company is less than the amount you owe to the Company).

20. Suspension and Stand-down

The Company may suspend you or stand you down from your employment at any time either with or without pay (at the Company's discretion) in the following circumstances:

- (a) if it is alleged that you have engaged in conduct of a type which may justify the termination of your employment;
- (b) if in the reasonable opinion of the Company, the circumstances warrant an investigation into your conduct or alleged conduct or your suspension;
- (c) as a matter of work health and safety or for the purpose of meeting our work health and safety obligations, including but not limited to circumstances where you are unfit for work;
- (d) where you cannot be usefully employed by the Company in any of the following circumstances:
 - (i) industrial action (other than industrial action organised or engaged in by the Company);
 - (ii) a breakdown of machinery or equipment, or malfunction of IT systems, which the Company cannot reasonably be held responsible for;
 - (iii) a stoppage of work for any cause for which the employer cannot reasonably be held responsible, including but not limited to pandemics, public health emergencies, natural disasters, inclement weather or due to Government orders or directives.

21. Abandonment of Employment

21.1 If you fail to present for work for three consecutive work days without reasonable explanation or without informing the Company of your absence, you will be taken to have abandoned your employment.

21.2 Where you abandon your employment the Company is entitled to treat this Agreement as repudiated by you and therefore terminated by you as of the last day on which you attended work. In such circumstances, the Company will not be required to provide you with any notice of termination or payment in lieu of notice.

22. Policies, practices and procedures

22.1 You are required to observe and comply with any written policy, practice or procedure of the Company. However, nothing in the Company's policies, practices or procedures give rise to a legal right enforceable by you and they do not form part of your contract of employment or this Agreement. You acknowledge and agree that any failure to comply with the Company's policies may result in disciplinary action, up to and including the termination of your employment.

23. Conduct during your employment

23.1 During your employment with the Company, you must not (without the prior written consent of the Company):

- (a) undertake any other employment or engagement;
- (b) be engaged, concerned or interested in, or associated with, or otherwise involved in, in any capacity, any business or activity that is competitive with any business carried on by the Company;
- (c) encourage or persuade any of the Company's employees, agents or contractors to resign or to cease providing services to the Company; or
- (d) encourage or persuade any of the Company's clients, customers, suppliers or agents to terminate or restrict their trade relationship with the Company.

24. Restriction on Post-Employment Activities

24.1 For the purpose of this Agreement:

- (a) Capacity means in the capacity of an employee, contractor, consultant, director, principal, trustee, unitholder, shareholder, (except where the shareholding or unitholding is less than 5% or in accordance with the Company's policies), agent nominee, company officer, advisor, sole trader, or as part of a partnership or joint venture or otherwise;
- (b) Client means any Person in any Capacity, who at the Termination Date:
 - (i) is or was a Person to whom the Company provides and/or provided products or services at any time during the Relevant Time; or
 - (ii) has entered into discussions or negotiations with the Company at either the Person's own initiative or at the initiative of the Company at any time during the Relevant Time with a view to receiving products or services provided by the Company and who had not notified the Company at least 3 months prior to the Termination Date that they did not wish to receive such products or services (other than any act you have performed, indirectly or directly, in breach of the terms of this Agreement, to induce a Person to not receive such products or services).
- (c) Competing Business means any business that is:
 - (i) the same as or similar to the business of the Company;

- (ii) the same as or similar to a material part of the business of the Company; or
- (iii) competitive with the business of the Company (directly or indirectly);

- (e) Non-Solicitation Restraint Period has the meaning set out in Item 17 of Schedule 1;

- (f) Person means includes any natural person, company, partnership, association, trust, business, or other organisation or entity of any description and a Person's legal personal representative(s), successors, assigns or substitutes;
- (g) Products means any products produced, manufactured, sold or distributed (and prospective Products to be produced, manufactured, sold or distributed) by the Company or its Related Entities;
- (h) Relevant Time means the period of 12 months immediately prior to the Termination Date;
- (i) Restraint Area has the meaning set out in Item 18 of Schedule 1;
- (j) Services means any services offered or provided by the Company;
- (k) Supplier means any Person:
 - (i) who supplied any Products or Services to the Company and with whom you or a Person reporting to you had contact or dealings with; or
 - (ii) who has entered into discussions or negotiations with you or a Person reporting to you on behalf of the Company, at either your own initiative, or at the initiative of a Person reporting to you, or at the initiative of the Company, at any time during the Relevant Time, with a view to supplying Products or Services to the Company and who had not notified the Company prior to the Termination Date that they did not wish to supply such products or services;
- (l) Termination Date means the date on which your employment with the Company ceases for any reason (including by way of your resignation).

24.2 You acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) the Company invests significant time, resources and money in training its employees, agents and contractors;

- (b) in the course of your employment you have had, and will continue to:
 - (i) have access to and knowledge of the Company's Products, Services, skills and techniques;
 - (ii) become acquainted with the Clients and Suppliers and their special needs and requirements;
 - (iii) become aware of the identity of prospective Clients whose business the Company is attempting to attract;
 - (iv) generally be privy to Confidential Information and Intellectual Property concerning the Company, its Clients, Suppliers, and its methods of doing business.
- (c) the Company has invested significant time and resources into developing its business, trade secrets and relationships with its clients, customers, suppliers and stakeholders;
- (d) your obligations under this clause are reasonable and necessary for:
 - (i) the protection of the goodwill and interests of the Company;
 - (ii) the protection of the Company's Confidential Information and intellectual property;
 - (iii) the protection of the Company's relationships with its employees, contractors, Clients, customers, Suppliers, stakeholders and business associates; and
 - (iv) the recognition of the potential for you to disrupt the employees and contractors of the Company when you cease employment or make use of client, customer, supplier or stakeholder connections you have developed during your employment; and
- (e) any breach of any of your obligations under this clause may not adequately be compensated by an award of damages and any breach will entitle the Company, in addition to any other remedies available at law or in equity, to seek an injunction to restrain the committing of any breach (or continuing breach).

24.3 You acknowledge and agree that during your employment and following the cessation of your employment (for any reason, including by way of your resignation) you will not:

- (a) act in any way which may harm or prejudice the reputation of the Company or have an adverse impact on its business, operations or affairs;
- (b) make any public statements about the Company or its officers, employees, clients, customers, suppliers, or stakeholders without the Company's prior written consent; or
- (c) counsel, procure or otherwise assist or enable any person to do any acts referred to in sub- clauses (a) and (b) above.

Non-Compete Restraint

24.4 For the duration of your employment with the Company and within the Non-Compete Restraint Period in the Restraint Area in any Capacity, you must not on your own account, or on behalf of any other person (without the prior written consent of the Company in its absolute discretion) engage, establish (or prepare to engage in or establish), promote, carry on, assist, participate in or be concerned or interested in (either directly or indirectly, jointly or alone) any Competing Business.

24.5 You acknowledge that this clause and Item 16 and Item 18 of Schedule 1 have effect as if they consisted of separate provisions, each being severable from the other. Each separate provision consists of the covenant set out in this clause combined with each separate period and separate area referred to in Item 16 and Item 18 of Schedule 1. If any of those separate provisions is invalid or otherwise unenforceable for any reason, the invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any of the other separate provisions.

Non-Solicitation Restraint

24.6 For the duration of your employment with the Company and within the Non-Solicitation Restraint Period in any Capacity, you must not on your own account, or on behalf of any other person (without the prior written consent of the Company in its absolute discretion):

- (a) solicit, employ, canvass, contract or entice away from the Company (or any Related Entity) any employee, agent, director, officer, advisor or consultant of the Company (or any Related Entity) with whom you had dealings in the Relevant Time;
- (b) solicit or persuade any Client, customer or Supplier of the Company (or any Related Entity) with whom you had dealings or performed work for in the Relevant Time to stop, terminate, not renew, reduce or alter its business with the Company (or any Related Entity);
- (c) canvass, solicit, or entice away (or attempt to do any of the foregoing), the business or custom of any Client, or provide Products or Services to any Client with whom you or a Person reporting to you, has performed work or had dealings with during the Relevant Time;
- (d) perform any services for any Client, customer or Supplier of the Company (or any Related Entity) with whom you had dealings in the Relevant Time, which are the same or similar to the Services;
- (e) in any Capacity, work for or with any Client or customer of the Company;
- (f) act in any way which may harm or prejudice the reputation or good name of the Company (or any Related Entity); or

(g) make any public statements about the Company (or any Related Entity) or its Clients, customers or Suppliers without the Company's prior written consent.

24.7 You acknowledge that this clause and Item 17 of Schedule 1 have effect as if they consisted of separate provisions, each being severable from the other. Each separate provision consists of the covenant set out in this clause combined with each separate period referred to in Item 17 of Schedule 1. If any of those separate provisions is invalid or otherwise unenforceable for any reason, the invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any of the other separate provisions.

Permissible Activities

24.8 Nothing in this clause or the Agreement prevents you from:

- (a) engaging in any activity for (such as investment in or work for) the sole benefit of the Company; or
- (b) engaging in any activity approved by the Company in writing.

Consideration

24.9 You agree that the consideration for your obligations under this clause is the experience, knowledge and information, including but not limited to Confidential Information, which you will gain in the course of your employment and your remuneration under this Agreement.

No Disparagement

24.10 You must not at any time, either during your employment or at any time after its termination:

- (a) disparage or otherwise make any statement, or permit or authorise any statement to be made, which is calculated or reasonably likely to damage the reputation or cause other damage to the Company or any of its directors, officers, employees, contractors or agents; or
- (b) make any public statements about the Company or its clients or suppliers without the Company's prior written consent.

25. Work Health and Safety

25.1 You acknowledge and agree that a safe and secure workplace is important and that you will:

- (a) attend to your duties safely;
- (b) comply with all work health and safety laws and regulations;

- (c) ensure the safety of yourself as well as your co-workers and any other person at the workplace;
- (d) comply with the Company's work health and safety practices and procedures;
- (e) immediately report to management any accidents, "near misses", incidents or hazards arising in the course of your employment;
- (f) immediately notify the Company if you become aware of any workplace risks, or suspected workplace risks.

25.2 You must under no circumstances attend work having consumed alcohol or drugs (including without limitation, instances where you are visibly under the influence of alcohol or drugs and/or the performance of your duties is impaired by the consumption of alcohol or drugs), or consume any alcohol or drugs while at work, unless the drugs are prescribed by a doctor, and then only on the basis that you are certified fit for work by a medical practitioner and the drugs are taken in accordance with medical advice and guidelines. You agree that the Company can request that you attend drug and alcohol testing or another medical examination to establish that you are fit for work. Reasonable alcohol consumption at Company endorsed functions and events is permitted.

25.3 You acknowledge and agree that if you do not comply with the obligations in this clause, disciplinary action may be taken against you, which could include the termination of your employment.

26. Medical Examination

26.1 The Company may, from time to time at its discretion, at the Company's expense, require you to undergo a medical examination by:

- (a) your treating medical practitioner or any medical practitioner who has furnished you with a medical certificate in relation to your employment with the Company; or
- (b) a medical practitioner nominated by the Company.

26.2 You consent to the medical practitioner releasing the results of that examination to the Company.

26.3 The Company will keep the results of any such examination confidential and will only use them to assess your fitness or capacity to undertake your duties or meet the Company's work health and safety obligations, which may result in the Company taking action including, but not limited to:

- (a) requiring you to return to work;
- (b) requiring you to leave, or remain away from, work, for a period of time; or

(c) ending your employment.

27. Workplace Surveillance

27.1 The Company monitors computer and network use by employees on an ongoing and regular basis to ensure compliance with relevant laws and the Company's policies. The Company may at any time access, monitor and record any communications or information developed, used, received, stored or transmitted by you using Company resources. Filtering systems are installed in the Company's network which restrict the flow of certain types of material, including emails and viruses, in and out of the network. Accordingly, some email traffic may be blocked.

27.2 This clause constitutes notice of surveillance under any applicable computer and camera surveillance laws and regulations.

28. Privacy

The Company will be required to request and hold personal information relating to you for the purposes of administering your employment. By signing this Agreement, you consent to the Company, either within or outside Australia, collecting, using and disclosing your personal information for any purpose which relates to your employment, and any person receiving your information from the Company may do the same.

29. General matters

29.1 This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between you and the Company regarding the matters set out in it and supersedes any prior representations, understandings, agreements or arrangements made between you and the Company, whether orally or in writing. This Agreement can only be varied by mutual agreement of the parties in writing.

29.2 The laws applicable to the jurisdiction specified in Item 19 of Schedule 1 govern this Agreement and the parties submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that state or territory and any courts competent to hear appeals from those courts.

29.3 If any clause or part of any clause is in any way unenforceable, invalid or illegal, it is to be read down so as to be enforceable, valid and legal. If this is not possible, the clause (or where possible, the offending part) is to be severed from this Agreement without affecting the enforceability, validity or legality of the remaining clauses (or parts of those clauses) which will continue in full force and effect.

Would you please sign the duplicate copy of this Agreement, and return it to me within 7 days. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours faithfully
